

The Promise

Acts 1:6-11

THE COMMISSION

“You shall be witnesses to Me” Acts 1:8

Jesus Christ has two plans for every life

The first is that we experience salvation

The second is that every believer serves as a beacon for those who need a saving relationship with Jesus

The Lord is inviting us to join Him in the most important thing in the world

To fulfill His call involves two things

Sharing your faith

Showing your faith

THE CONDITION

“You shall receive power” Acts 1:8

Jesus reminded His disciples that being a witness is something He does through you

There is something you should never forget about being a Christian – it is a supernatural faith

“Only one life, ‘twill soon be passed; only what’s done for Christ will last”

It should be “Only one life, ‘twill soon be passed; only what’s done through Christ will last”

THE COMPANION

“When the Holy Spirit has come upon you”

Acts 1:8

What did the promise of the Holy Spirit mean to the apostles?

Put very simply, it meant it wasn't over Christianity's story did not end with the crucifixion and the resurrection

We are living in the twenty ninth chapter of Acts
“You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.” Acts 1:8
