

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK
DR. JIM COOLEY

The month of May will be filled with so many opportunities. I hope that you can be a part of everything the Lord is doing at First Baptist Church.

ALABAMA BAPTIST SENIOR ADULT EVANGELISM CONFERENCE

It will be our privilege to host this annual event on Monday, May 1. Among the speakers will be outstanding preachers like Junior Hill and Mike Shaw. Musical worship will include a concert by Squire Parsons. Admission is free and everyone is welcomed. This event is sponsored by the Evangelism Department of our State Board of Missions.

AUNT BEE'S POTLUCK ON SUNDAY MAY 7...

...will conclude our Andy in April Celebration. We have had a great month of spiritual growth in the town of Mayberry. Special thanks to Brian Spraberry, Larry Byrd, and John David Owen for being celebrity teachers this year. Bring your favorite dish and join us for supper in the fellowship hall at 5:00pm. After supper, we will be blessed by a special concert from our Children's Choir. I encourage all of our members and their families to make sure you are here for Potluck Supper.

ANNIE ARMSTRONG

By the time all of the offerings were counted on Easter Sunday, we had reached and exceeded our Annie Armstrong goal of $20,000. Total gifts given were $22,408. We thank God for the faithfulness of our First Baptist Family.

MOTHER'S DAY

We look forward to honoring the Mothers of our church on May 14. I am so grateful for the spiritual influence of Godly Moms. You invest so much in your families. It will be our privilege to recognize you and pray for you during our morning service. Remember, we will not have evening activities at church so that your family can express their love all day long.

On Mother's Day, I will begin a sermon series that will continue through Father's Day called "Let Me Tell You about My Church: At My Church, We Grow Godly Families."

A WORD FROM OUR ASSOCIATE PASTOR DR. RICH HUTCHENS

Yogi Berra once said about low attendance at the Yankees games, "If people don't want to come, you can't stop 'em!" Well, we all know what he meant. It's really not possible and certainly not healthy to coerce, guilt, or trick people into attending any event for which they see no need. Our repeated invitations, of course, are motivated by a sincere desire to share something wonderful, exciting and personally fulfilling with our friends and family. In our case, it's worship and Bible study at First Baptist Church! This year as we focus on telling others about our church, it is instructive to note what recent research has revealed about those who have quit coming. The Barna study unearthed 5 reasons behind the decline in church attendance, one of which is this: Lack of Community. The study points out that despite a growing epidemic of loneliness, only 10% report going to church to find community.

Yet, when we talk to those who have recently joined First Baptist we find that one of the first things mentioned is the warm fellowship and sense of belonging, often from the very first day! We are a church that excels at reaching out and making folks feel welcome. One of the ways that we have extended this welcome beyond Sunday greetings in worship and our fellowship times is the CARE NIGHT. We had a great response last year and so will be repeating the event on May 21 in place of the evening worship. As is our custom, we'll gather at the church at 5:00pm and plan to conclude at 6:00pm. In that hour our plan is to reach out to over 150 of our folks through cards and letters, phone calls and emails, prayers and visits. Prior to that evening we'll have sign-ups around the church and will put together 'care teams', each with a particular focus. Some of our Sunday School classes will be asked to recruit special teams to focus on their class, reaching out to both absentees and those who simply need a word of encouragement. So what do you have to do? Simply sign up and show up! We'll do all the rest in preparation for this great night of caring for one another.

YOUTH MINISTRY REV. NATHAN LYON

Cincinnati here we come! At the end of this month, our church will be on mission in Ohio, serving and singing during Choir Tour!! Please be in continued prayer for this. Pray for safety as we travel and serve, pray for us to follow the Lord's leading in situations, pray for people to follow Christ; and pray for our youth and leaders to grow and have a deeper relationship with God.

NOTES ON MINISTRY DR. JOE HOPKINS

Special thanks to all of you who contributed so much to our Easter season. The services for Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, and Easter Sunday were powerful! To our children, youth, college students, and adults – Thank you! To our staff, choir members, orchestra, sound/tech team, and soloists – Thank you!

In the midst of all of this, there was a team of wonderful volunteers who made certain our sanctuary and other spaces were ready for services and the Baptist Association concert. Thank you for working around the clock to protect, repair, and prepare our place of worship. You are wonderful, and while we are sorry for the damage from the storm, we are excited about moving forward with some updates to the facility.

Please notice that the choir loft has had a wonderful lift. New flooring, hand rails, and construction have made this area better able to accommodate our singers, and it looks fabulous! Again, thank you.

We are grateful for the countless ways you support music and worship at FBC. It is a joy to be a part of this family, and we look forward to our time together in worship.

Blessings,
Joe

Wednesday, May 17, 9:30am - Fellowship Hall

Debbie Campbell, Director of Circulation/Public Relations with The Alabama Baptist, and previous member of FBC will review the book, Looking for Lovely: Collecting the Moments that Matter. No matter who we are and what path God has us on, we all need to look for loveliness, fight to the finish and find beauty in our every day!

Bible Study
Tuesday, May 23, 10:30am - Room G02
Lunch to Follow

Bebe Costner will lead our study, "Off with the Masks." The age old song says it well, "Let others see Jesus in you." Peter's broken spirit was restored by Jesus; the way is available to us who desire to follow Him.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY CYNTHIA WATTS

"Thank you" is not enough to express how grateful I am for your warmest welcome and your immeasurable support! The Staff and Church Family have been so kind and helpful. I have not needed to ask for anything, because you have proactively supplied every need. I love you dearly.

So many thanks to Gloria Whitlock, Robin Rose, Joyce Roberts and all the Preschool and Children's workers who have been so faithful working with our precious children. What an admirable job you do and have done! Deep thanks also to the Flint and Craddock families who moved my office supplies and furnishings to the church. I honestly could not have done it without you.

The Preschool/Children's area is DEFINITELY growing! We depend on the parents of our children to volunteer for Worship Care. However, all members are invited to volunteer to help. Robin Rose does a great job coordinating the rotating schedule. Contact Robin at rose1032@gmail.com to join this elite group.

Palm Sunday was pure joy as 30 children plus their teachers came down the aisle waving palm branches. Over 80 parents and children attended the lunch. Thank you for all the adults, youth, and children who helped with hiding eggs and supervision.

June 21-23 is our Vacation Bible School, with the theme "Created by God: Built for a Purpose." We could use more adults to help in this evening event. Our program to show all we learned will be Sunday night, June 25. I look forward to my time with you.
